OLYMPIA MOMENTS LTD

Julie Cook and Paul Davies

Olympia Moments Ltd is by photographer/writer team Julie Cook and Paul Davies on the subject of a group of erotic dancers who founded their own 'underground' club scene in the back rooms of London pubs between 1998-2008.

Olympia Moments Ltd designed their business card using an image of Manet's painting, Olympia, of 1863. They felt that the image represented them too. The Olympia Moments evenings embraced the paintings underlying message; that their bodies (with the help of some dressing up and some props and games) held the power.

This artist's book extends Cook's interest in voyeurism while writing partner Davies includes some drawings as well as a contextualizing essay. The volume is modest in size but sumptuous in detail featuring 67 litho colour plates.
